The Regionale is a cross-border project that is unique in this form. At the end of the year, 21 institutions from Switzerland, France and Germany will be showing positions by contemporary artists. Launched in 2000, the exhibition format serves to promote and intensify understanding between artists, curators and institutions on a trinational level.

This year's Regionale 24 at the Kunsthalle Palazzo is entitled "Im Angesicht der Dämmerung" and features works by the following artists: Kristian Suvatne Augland, Alexandra vom Endt, Aurélien Finance, Mireille Gros, Florine Leoni and Cristina Wirth, Emmanuel Pidré, Nina Rieben, Alice Tioli, Stephan Jon Tramèr, Noémie Vidonne and Bettina Winter. Under the title "Im Angesicht der Dämmerung", the works take us into a time of upheaval:

In the twilight, everything appears to be changed. Cloudy, gray refracted light is interspersed with bands of gold, red-orange and violet. The world gleams mysteriously. A borderline begins, the transition between day and night, between being awake and dreaming, between present and past. The feeling of standing on the threshold of the unknown sets in. The exhibition attempts to give visual expression to this elusive, emotional moment. It leads to a Boulevard of Twilight, which holds both calm and stormy waves. Stepping over the threshold can lead to withdrawal and farewell, but also to a creative departure, to fruitful encounters and revolutionary thoughts.

The exhibition was curated by Michael Babics and Olivia Jenni.
