Elise Corpataux
A Lifetime Waiting for Summer to Happen

May 29 – July 27, 2024
Opening: Wednesday May 29, 6pm

With A Lifetime Waiting for Summer to Happen, suns.works is happy to present Elise Corpataux's first solo show at the gallery. The exhibition brings together new and recent works by the artist, staging a scenery of fever-dreams, racing hearts, and deep plunges. Navigating through layers of memory and fragments of desire, Corpataux plays on different keys of nostalgia. Like a pop song or a sunset, her paintings are suspended between the iconic and the prosaic. They become a space for projection of a personal mystique that never quite succeeds to conceal its own conditioning.

Elise Corpataux (* 1994) is an artist living and working in Fribourg. Recent presentations of her work include: Braunsfelder, Cologne (2024); Damien & The Love Guru, Brussels (2023-24, duo); Kunsthalle Friart, Fribourg (2023, solo); Liste Art Fair, Basel, with suns.works (2022, solo); Marc Jancou Contemporary, Rougemont (2022, duo); Plymouth Rock, Zurich (2021, solo); galerie lange+pult, Auvornier (2021, duo); Kiefer Hablitzel Prize, Basel (2021); Platform19, CACY, Yverdon-les-Bains (2019).
