Kulturmuseum Bern, Schützenweg 22

Vitamins for the Bernese cultural scene.

Some talk, we act. In December, the Kulturmuseum Bern will be transformed into a lively marketplace. We sell fresh oranges, Italian design, and contemporary art. "Oranges," the new exhibition by Maya Manz, brings la dolce vita to the capital. The focus is on the finest Italian oranges from the "Bärner Märit." Each one is branded with the iconic guard dog logo of the Bern Cultural Museum, making you beautiful and strong.

Maya Manz, artist and entrepreneur and winner of AD magazine's Young Designer Award, stages her sales exhibition as a stylish dialogue between everyday culture and art. From her studio in Milan, she brings works, objects, and ideas that, together with selected products from the Bern kitchen store, open up a world between design, craftsmanship, and Italianità.

"The wall with ..." We celebrate the fine arts. An 8-square-meter orange wall, free rein for young artists, and space for new ideas. 11 vernissages from December 5, 2025, to January 2, 2026, every Thursday, Friday, and Saturday from 6:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. Visible for just one evening, each vernissage is a unique experience. Come by and raise a glass to art and life.

Radio Popolare Milano provides the perfect soundtrack to the "Oranges" exhibition. Admission is free. You and your friends are very welcome.
